"Joe Bonamassa is the world-class elite exponent of blues music."* – *Blues Matters

"There are guitarists and there is Joe Bonamassa.
He has proven himself to be untouchable."* – *Metal Planet Music

Celebrated blues-rock guitarist and singer-songwriter Joe Bonamassa will return to the UK in October 2027 for three concerts, presented in association with J&R Adventures and N&P Touring. The tour will visit Bournemouth International Centre (25 October), Birmingham's Utilita Arena (27 October) and Glasgow's SEC Armadillo (28 October).

Planet Rock will launch a 48-hour ticket pre-sale at 10am GMT on Wednesday 25 November at PlanetRock.com.

Tickets will go on general sale at 10am GMT on Friday 27 November at www.jbonamassa.com/tour-dates, Planet Rock Tickets, and Gigantic.com.

Bonamassa will also headline a special outdoor concert at The Piece Hall in Halifax, West Yorkshire on Sunday 4 July 2027, with special guest Toby Lee. Tickets for that performance are available at www.thepiecehall.co.uk/event/joe-bonamassa.

The UK dates follow another remarkable period in Bonamassa's career. In 2026, he extended his record for the most No. 1 albums in the history of Billboard's Blues Albums chart to 31, beginning the year with the release of the Grammy nominated album B.B. King's Blues Summit 100, an ambitious 32-song tribute to his longtime mentor featuring more than 40 guest artists, including Eric Clapton, Buddy Guy, Chaka Khan, Slash, Gary Clark Jr., Susan Tedeschi, Derek Trucks and Christone "Kingfish" Ingram. The album became his landmark 30th No. 1, followed by his 31st with The Spirit Of Rory Live From Cork, a live album and concert film celebrating the music of Irish guitar legend Rory Gallagher.

Those releases followed his acclaimed 2025 studio album Breakthrough, which became his 29th No. 1 on the chart. Together, the projects reflect Bonamassa's extraordinary range as a guitarist, vocalist, producer and interpreter of the blues, and his commitment to honouring the musicians who shaped the genre while carrying their influence forward.

Backed by his world-class touring band, Bonamassa's 2027 UK performances will feature material from Breakthrough alongside career-spanning favourites and selections from his extensive catalogue. Renowned for his electrifying live performances, exceptional musicianship and expansive guitar collection, Bonamassa continues to bring his distinctive blend of blues, rock and soul to audiences around the world.

"I am looking forward to returning to the UK for another tour," says Joe. We always have a great time performing in the UK. British audiences are the best in the world. That's why we keep coming back."

About Joe Bonamassa:

Guitarist and singer Joe Bonamassa is a six-time GRAMMY nominee and a four-time Blues Music Award winner. He holds the record for the most No. 1 albums on Billboard's Blues Albums chart. His 2025 studio album Breakthrough was his 29th, followed in 2026 by the Grammy nominated album B.B. King's Blues Summit 100 and his 31st, The Spirit Of Rory Live From Cork. His catalogue of more than 50 releases spans studio albums, live recordings and collaborations with Black Country Communion and Rock Candy Funk Party.

Beyond his own recordings and international touring career, Bonamassa is a producer, curator and leading collector and historian of vintage guitars. Through his independent labels Journeyman Records and KTBA Records, he has produced albums for artists including Joanne Shaw Taylor, Marc Broussard, Larry McCray, Jimmy Hall and Eric Gales. He also curates and headlines Keeping The Blues Alive at Sea and Sound Wave Beach Weekend. His non-profit Keeping The Blues Alive Foundation has funded more than 850 music education projects, reaching over 150,000 students across the US, and its Fuelling Musicians initiative provides financial assistance to working musicians.
